REVIEW OF GAUTENG GRADE 10 BUSINESS STUDIES EXAM PAPER

- While I recommend reading Revenge of the Sith prior to seeing the movie, I must issue a couple of caveats, I suppose. One, don't expect incredibly intelligent writing. Two, it will invariably (gasp!) spoil the movie. The book does, however, provide us with a more revealing look inside the complex thoughts of Anakin, Darth Sidious, Padme, Obi-Wan, and Yoda...stuff you won't get from the movie."Infinite knowledge...Infinite time, does that require."- Yoda

- I LOVE this cookbook!!!! It was a Christmas gift and ever since we've been having great dinners nearly every night. I don't even want to go out anymore. This book contains easy to make meals in under 30 minutes (with the exception of the chapter on crockpot cooking). What I love about this one is that it plans the entire menu for you, and gives you steps to follow to prepare 2-3 recipes at once. Meals are usually a protein and a side, and sometimes include salads, breads, veggies, etc. And the best part? They're very light.I've made probably 30-40% of the menus in this cookbook now, cooking them nearly every night. The only down side is the more expensive ingredients (sometimes) and quite frankly the time it takes to find and purchase all of the ingredients in the grocery store. I spend a lot more time in the produce aisle these days.Two favorite chapters are the section of meals for two people, and the "20 ingredients" chapter, where you keep 20 ingredients on hand to make each of the 20 recipes. Favorite menus include peppered beef tenderloin with orange-herbed asparagus and crusty french rolls, pan-seared chicken in prosciutto-fig sauce with roasted green beans, caesar-style green salad, and whole grain rolls, chicken piccata with garlic-basil pasta and steamed green beans, and seared chicken with avocado and tortilla chips con queso... yum!!!!
