REVIEW OF SURVEYOR ITI QUESTION PAPER FILE

- I think the book should be for an older age group than 9-12 it was advanced for that age group. I think it was a very good book up until the end. I think i missed something cause i really didn't understand the ending. But i know i lent my book to my aunt and she cried and thought it was a very good book. I read Summer of My German Soldier for 9th grade High School and i barely undrerstood certain parts.I liked it though inspight of those few things!!

- Would it ever be excepted during World War II for a Jewish girl to befriend a Germain? How about a Nazi? This book is all about breaking the rules and following your heart. Patty comes from a family where the only person who loves her is their maid Ruth. But, that all changes on day when she is working in her father's shop and some of the POW soilders come in and she meets on who is not like the rest. He is handsome, smart, and extremely liturate. After that one time meeting all she can think about is him. One night she sees' him going and trying to hope a train and see calls to him and he comes to see her. She then hides him in her garage. She then sees' an add in the paper saying that Anton was missing from the camp. She was questioned by agents. So will she tell them everything they want to know? Or will she save her Germain soidier?
