REVIEW OF QUICKBOOKS PRO 2010 USER MANUAL

- I was quite intrigued by this book, since Hargitai lived a most interesting life. Yet, the use of metaphors and flashbacks made the book somewhat confusing. In several instances, it was difficult to distinguish between fantasy and reality.
- In Peter Hargitai's novel Attila: A Barbarian's Bedtime

Story, he describes to the reader a journey he encountered. He tells about his travel from Hungary to America. Hargitai uses flashbacks to let the reader know about peopple in his life and things that have happened to him. Although this book is hard to follow at times because it jumps back and forth, it has a good story line and once one finishes the book it will make more since. If you are a person you enjoys reading and can stay with a book then this is a good book for you...if you are the complete opposite and cannot read a book that is quite complicated then this may not be the book for you.
