REVIEW OF ELEUSIS ARCHETYPAL IMAGE OF MOTHER AND DAUGHTER

- Martha Grimes

follows up her MAN WITH A LOAD OF MISCHIEF with THE ANODYNE NECKLACE. A story of murder, missing jewels, new interests, delightful off-beat characters and an unforgettable tour of London's East Side. Richard Jury is investigating a murder, but Lady Jenny Kennington is a lady with real problems. My favorite character was Mrs. Pennystevens who never beamed Sir Miles as I would have like to have done. I know I've met Ernestine Craigie, finder of bodies & bird watcher, on the streets of several small towns. Good read--enjoy. Nash Black, author of SANDPRINTS OF DEATH.

- Although this author is witty and has a definite way with words, I found her to be a whiny brat. In her wry manner, Julie displays a lack of respect for most people she encounters, camouflaged under a cloak of humor. I did not expect a cookbook, but hoped for a more engaging story of "self-awakening". I put the book down because I could not spend another moment with this individual, who mistakenly finds her histrionics an amusing topic of interest for everyone.
