REVIEW OF HEAT TRANSFER 4TH EDITION

- I recently re-read 1984. I can count on one hand the books I've re-read in their entirety of my own volition, so that should tell you something about what I think of it. I'll resist the urge to draw current political parallels and just say that the way Orwell portrays how a collective autocracy intent on nothing but preserving its own dominance can erode individuality fascinates and terrifies me like little else I have ever encountered. Reading this book is a permanent loss of innocence. You leave it sadder and wiser--but a lot sadder than wiser.

- This is also a very good read for the liberty minded showing the oppression that can be wrought by a government unchecked.
