REVIEW OF SANCTUARY WILLIAM FAULKNER

- If you loved HTS, you'll definitely love this book. Beth-Ellen was the last person I expected the brash, outspoken Harriet to form a friendship with. The descriptions of BE's jet-setting, superficial socialite of a mother and her fussy boyfriend are a scream! And the sign-writing culprit was the last person I suspected.

- A friend recommended this book. It is a quick and easy read, and entertaining enough. I'm giving it 3 stars because it really is only for people with very little knowledge of math and statistics. If you've ever taken even a single statistics or probability course, in high school or college, this book isn't for you. You already know everything it tells you. There are a few amusing examples here and there, but beyond that, it doesn't provide any particular insight.
