Navigating Strategic Decisions The Voice of Reason Fundamentals of Critical Thinking

We know that about 6,000 Million people in the world live with the objective of attaining peace, tranquillity and self-fulfilment. The countless number of people who lived and died before this also had the same objective. It is also true that the generations that will come after us will also have the same objective. However, it doesn't seem that the people who are living now and those who have lived before us achieved this objective of attaining peace, tranquillity and self-fulfilment. It is the same kind of peace and self-fulfilment that all of us seek and no one can gainsay this. We also know that none among the great Thinkers, Philosophers and Wise Men have come forward to find a way to self-fulfilment.

REVIEW OF THE VOICE OF REASON FUNDAMENTALS OF CRITICAL THINKING

- During a search of books by Elizabeth Gilbert on Amazon.com, I came across Caroline Sharp's "A Writers Workbook". Anyone with a desire to put pen to paper needs to read this book. I want to buy one for every friend who has expressed an interest in writing! It encouraged me to begin journaling again after many years.
- I would not want to rely solely on this book for taking the patent bar exam, but I thought it was a good overview of the area of patent law as well as the patent bar exam-- especially for the money. There are not many books available on the patent bar exam-- most are for laymen who want to get their own patent. This book may be a good first step if you are a little curious about the patent field and want more "meat" than a layman's book but unsure or unready for a full fledged review course costing hundreds or thousands of dollars.
