REVIEW OF FREIGHTLINER MANUAL TRANSMISSION PROBLEMS

- One element of this book that I found to be very useful was the practical/direct instruction it offers on its various points. For example, Piper will spend a chapter showing how the Word of God is necessary in the fight for joy, and then the next chapter goes into strategies for actually reading and meditating on the Word of God. He then does the same process for prayer. Much of Piper's writing is of a deep, theological nature, chapter after chapter, and it was refreshing for there to be hands-on application sprinkled throughout the whole book.

- This Jan Karon Mitford series is one of those you want never to end. I want to go to Mitford and meet all the friends of Father Tim. (Some of them are alive here in Belton, Texas.) "Light from Heaven" is just the beginning, in a way, because, I'll read this series again and again.
