REVIEW OF SAMPLE CCAT TEST FROM CRITERIA CORP

- I believe the book "Breakfast of Champions" to be a thoughtful and fascinating work of literature. I loved it just as I loved Cat's Cradle and other books by Kurt Vonnegut. I recommend this book to highschool students and those above highschool. It was a great read.

- I have used this book on several occasions to introduce friends and family to Vonnegut. In this fast and easy read, you have all of Vonnegut's strengths, all the elements of his masterpieces (Slaughterhouse-Five, Cat's Cradle, etc.) in one amazing novel. It is hilarious and ridiculous at times (he illustrates the novel himself with hand-drawn pictures of underpants and wide-open beavers), but always there is the genuine love for human beings and the deep feelings of hope and loss which Vonnegut and his fellow WW2 soldier/writer Joseph Heller are famous for. Read this book as an introduction to his other works. If you've already read some of Vonnegut's works, you can find all the threads of his philosophy come together here. Make it the beginning and the end to a Vonnegut study-- die-hard fans, read it again! You will discover something new to enjoy every time you read it. Ah, and this is one of those situations where the film adaptation should NOT be substituted for the real thing, nor should you judge the book by the horrid movie of the same name.
