REVIEW OF BLOOD WORLD UNDYING MERCENARIES SERIES BOOK 8

- Good story and my son devoured it. I don't have to argue with him to get him to read it. He loves The Littles.
- Ugh Rachel Lear.... I get what London was trying to do but it didn't work. She tried so hard to make her the likeable, youngest child that she made her into a pushover. I wanted to slap her, tell her to stand up for herself and stop eating brownies. The witchcraft angle was old after the first one, and they proceed to do several more after. My pet peeve with writers is when they just want you to buy a romantic spark by just writing it. That's just being lazy. I don't see why either of them liked each other. The ending was anticlimatic, the plot predictable, the characters blah, and yet I still liked it better than the second Rebecca Lear story.
