REVIEW OF CHAPTER 5 TRANSFER PRICING METHODS UNITED NATIONS

- I've read other Jodi Picoult books, so knew this one would be good. I was not disappointed. While there were some technical/ legal errors, that did not distract from the overall book. For me the best aspects of the book are reflecting on how the mother juggles her own values and beliefs with how she believes her child should be raised. She honestly puts her child first in all her decisions. Reading this book was an enjoyable, heartwarming experience.

- I've read several others The Pact, Plain Truth, and a few others before reading this one and its the best yet! I've got Mercy waiting for me to read and I cant wait to open the cover to the first page because I know it's going to be an immersing tale with rich characters and plotting...it'll be unputdownable just as Keeping Faith was.
