REVIEW OF CHDA STUDY GUIDE

- This book is okay, and is helpful to see when women give too much of themselves to please a man, on that I recommend it. Where the book needs improvement, IMHO, is that I really didn't learn what to do beyond the games like playing "dumb as a fox" I found this to be more disempowering than helpful. I don't want to play dumb anymore, or play games, and I really don't think a man deserves this from any woman.

- While the techniques in this book may work with a few men (I won't deny that some techniques actually could work) There is no way that a truly respectable alpha male in charge of his life with plenty of options will tolerate any of the following techniques. Do you want a man or a wimp? Interesting relationships are about push and pull, I give you some and you give me some back. It's a way to create tension, without tension there is nothing! If the man is doing all the chasing such as this book suggests, regardless of what you think he will get bored, grow tired or find a way to replace you. If he is a decent person and respects himself with dignity he will walk away eventually and if he doesn't, you girls then have to realize what kind of guy you are dealing with an absolute sucker of a toy! Congrats! While men are competitive in nature and appreciate the chase, no man loves (as this book describes) doing all the work just as you women don't either. "If the nice girl leaves, she calls first to tell him where she'll be and what time she'll be back." Yeah obviously thats how it should work if your in a respectable relationship! "The bitch lets him think about where she is every now and then" yeah go ahead and try that with any respectable guy out there who values himself! The problem with this book is that if these techniques are working on your man then you essentially have a puppet, a goose neck who doesn't have confidence, who doesn't respect himself and who is weak! Just as a man will tire of something so easy, you women will tire of an easy man who will bend over backward at your every call. You also want a challenge, just as we do. The result is two fold, it goes either way. Men and women may be different in most things but when it comes to true universal love we are not that much different. Bottom line is that you both need to meet each other half way or the relationship will eventually fall apart and perhaps even become destructive. Once again these techniques may work but only on a wimp who doesn't know any better. Men want a woman, not a little girl and certainly not a bitch! Following this advice will only hurt you long term, you will grow bitter when you realize good quality men won't stick around and the techniques will grow on you so much that it might even be hard to reverse before you realize that all your relationships are a game! Just be yourself at all times, allow love to flow, never be afraid to let go and give your true gifts and radiant energy. I love women, but not like this! Wonder why the author keeps her identity a secret? Good luck trying to find a biography on her, she is probably a bitter old single person who still plays these games on guys that don't know any better. Do yourself a favor and read Blue Truth by David Deida or any book of his for that matter.
