REVIEW OF SUCCHI DI FRUTTA

- This book was ok. The theme of the story was clearly shown but the characters poorly developed. At times the story was tedious, long, and boring. Since I had to read this for summer reading, the long chapters and monotonous tone of the book, didnt make me any more motivated to read it. It definitely wasnt the best choice for a summer reading book. A lot of students wont bother to try and find a meaning out of this book if they are forced to read and write an essay on it(especially over the summer). The book wasnt as horrible as a lot of people said it to be, but i couldn't find it as a book to turn my whole life around as others said it did for them. Maybe in time this book will develop into a more meaningful book for me, but for now i wouldn't recommend teachers to make their students read and be forced to write about it.

- How to Study your Bible is an invaluable resource for those who wish to know the Bible better. This little book brings out things that I have never seen in the 40 some years of being a Christian. It has made the Bible come alive for me again, not just a book of laws and rules, but this shows us what to look for in a scripture. I am seeing the Bible with new eyes and it is such a blessing. I would recommend this to anyone who wants to know more about the bible. Both new Christians, and us who are older! Doing a word study for each chapter is an amazing learning tool. Get this and really dig in the word of God.
