The Complete Prose Of Woody Allen by Allen, Woody

REVIEW OF THE COMPLETE PROSE OF WOODY ALLEN

- I just bought this book for 2 friends of mine that are currently pregnant (based on another friend's recommendation). I have heard positive feedback from both of them - saying it's both a factual book and addresses many of the issues that they cannot find in other pregnancy books - and not in a "doom and gloom" format. It is unfortunate that the reader in New York did not like the book because I have not heard these sentiments from anyone else that has read the book.

- I'm an ex-Wiccan, and while I strongly disagree with some of Wicca's tenets now, I'm not ignorant enough to call Wicca "devilworship". Yet this is what the author does. The author calls Wiccans "satanists", but he calls ALL people outside his denomination "satanists". Here is a direct quote: "Put simply, if you aren't a believer in Jesus Christ as Almighty God come in the flesh to save you from your sins, you ARE a satanist!" So the author is saying that this applies to Catholics, Jews, Buddhists, Hindus, and Muslims among others (he even explicitly mentions names like "Krishna"). But the quote that takes the cake is probably: "Even if you are a purported atheist, you are still worshipping Satan". I think the ignorance of this analysis speaks for itself. I guess the only people who would like this book are paranoid Bible-thumpers who already agree with the above, and want to read more books to reinforce this bigotted idea. What anybody could learn from this, I haven't the slightest idea...
