REVIEW OF PHILIPS MP70 MANUAL

- I recently read this story for the first time. Like many others, I'd heard it referenced countless times as the iconic representation of mankind's dual nature, and had seen a lot of pop-culture re-tellings of the story with "original" twists added. For anyone who thinks they know the story already, I highly recommend picking up the original and giving it a read - you might be surprised. It's a short, easy book, is very descriptively written, and provides quite the thrill for anyone interested in the classics.

- The classic tale of Dr. Jekyll struggling with his inner demon, Mr.

Hyde. The story is told mainly from the point of view of Mr. Utterson, the lawyer of Dr. Jekyll, who is trying to find out who Mr. Hyde is. This is a great book, one of those classics that everyone should read at least once. Stevenson gives great descriptions of the battle between Jekyll and Hyde. I highly recommend it.
