REVIEW OF CASE STUDY RISK RETIREMENT

- A wonderful assortment of recipes for the common, and uncommon onion. It gives many new variations on some pretty old recipes, making possible the refreshment of some old stand-bys that you may not be willing to make in their old way. Ms Moon obviously loves food and sharing her passion for it; its hard to resist her enthusiasm. The bread recipes included in the book, all containing some type of onion, are particularly enticing. A couple of her recipes, for soda bread and champ, brought back vivid and happy recollections of visiting Ireland. This a great book for both the accomplished cook and, like me, a dedicated amateur.

- It is the exact thing I was expecting and serves my requirement for research. The book is precise and gives the source for his facts.
