REVIEW OF SERVSAFE BOOK 5TH EDITION

- ...unfortunately, what the previous posters said was true. I have been a long time fan of Auel and really looked forward to this book. But it really is like she ran out of ideas...she just kept regurgitating old stories over and over and over again. Not only that, but incidents that happened earlier in the book kept getting repeated. I got to one point in the book where I just couldn't read the Zelendoni Poem anymore and just skipped over it everytime she copied and pasted it (which was probably about a chapter in itself). But it was still nice to read a book of this nature and I probably will still read the next one....if it comes out sometime within the next 12 years...

- I eagerly awaited the coming of this book but after reading it I am sorry I wasted my time. There were so many chances for drama that were missed, so many segments that did nothing to advance the story. What little bit of action that did happen was so weak that it wasn't even action! It seemed to me this book was just a commercial for the next book. The first 4 books are well worth a second read, but this one should be forgotten.
