REVIEW OF JOURNALISM AND PR NEWS MEDIA AND PUBLIC RELATIONS IN THE DIGITAL AGE REUTERS CHALLENGES

- The Book Matilda was a great book to read. It's about a little girl who's parents hate her and even hate looking at her. One day she got so mad at her parents that she started pulling pranks on them like dying her father's hair blond, putting super glue in her fathers hat so when he put it on it would stick to his head, and much more. She got so mad that she realized that she had powers. She could use those powers when she thought of times that someone yelled at her. With those powers she can move things juice and cereal. Mrs. Honey is her sweet teacher and Mrs. Trunchball is her mean principal. Everyone hated Mrs. Trunchball so Matilda pulls pranks on her. The end is great when they trick Mrs. Trunchball. You'll have to read to find out how they prank her. I give it **** because it's humorous, adventurous, and a fantasy. I love those thing in a story. If you want to read this book it is by Roald Dahl, and the title is Matilda.

- Very helpful and exactly in the condition stated. Recommended for personal and group use. Easy to read and navigate. For both men and women.
