REVIEW OF HARDCORE PAWN FULL EPISODES

- I have read The Giver 4 times--twice to myself and two other times to other people. This is one of those books that should be read more than once, just because of all the information in it. The Giver starts off slow, and might deter some younger readers, but once it gets a few chapters in it becomes very intriguing and thought provoking. This is a wonderful book for young kids to first realize and understand the freedoms and other important things we have in our world today. This also teaches that sometimes living through the bad in life is worth it to get the good. I really cannot say enough about this book. It is simply excellent.

- This book was one of my favorite books. It kept me on the edge of my seat the whole way through. It is about a boy and what happens to him when he receives the most important job in the tower. If I recommend any book it would be this one.
