REVIEW OF B01GHAXT7W FR32

- I admit it was strange reading at first and a slightly different writing style that I am used to...but considering this book was written 1953....AMAZING! A book definitely before its time and can be truly applied and understood today. This is something I would definitely want my children to read!
- Fahrenheit 451 is a book is filled with action and suspense. If you like a book that has many twists and turns, then you'll enjoy this book by Ray Bradberry. He tried to write about what he thought would be the worst future, with no books. They would set books on fire, because to read and poses a book is unlawful. The people believed that books made people upset, think up different ideas, and unequal. The firefighters we know now would set things on fire, not put out the fire like they do now. This book is fairly easy to understand, middle schoolers should be able to understand the vocabulary.
