REVIEW OF IN MINISTRY SERVICE ADVENTIST

- Although Chesterton humbly passes this book off as merely an answer to questions posed to him during his life, it is an incredible read. I have read some parts of it numerous times and the whole book more than once. This is one of those gems that you will read with a pen in hand, scribbling in notes and underlines like you were back in college again.
- A sensitive, yet heartwrenching, story which illustrates the ridiculousness of judging a person by his racial ethnicity. Too bad our government still feels compelled to put us all in little boxes whenever we fill out a form. Will we never be rid of the idiocy of it all?
