REVIEW OF CANDY BAR QUIZ ANSWERS

- Not a typical Watch book. Our hero Sam Vimes accidentally slips about 30 years back in time in pursuit of a criminal, only to encounter his younger self as a wet-behind-the-ears Lance Constable. Will he find a way back to Sybil? Will Carcer (our criminal villain) kill him first? Can Vimes prevent an uprising of the common folk from turning into a massacre? Moving back in time leaves Ankh-Morpork free of many (but not all) Watch favorite characters (the book is quite Carrotless, troll, dwarf, and almost zombie-free). This reduces the slapstick and rat-pie quotient significantly but if you prefer Vimes' hardboiled cop to those hijinks, you will like this a lot. It's quite thrilling, actually, and a lot of fun seeing many of the Watch series' human characters in younger form.
- Mr. Steves pulls off another winner book. It is all you need if you do not speak french.
