REVIEW OF ORGANIZATIONAL BEHAVIOR DOCTORAL HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL

- The Hidden Messages in Water by Masaru Emoto is a book about a new discovery that forms in crystals found in frozen water. According to the author when specific, concentrated thoughts are directed toward the crystals that form in frozen water of clear springs beautiful crystals in snowflake patterns are created. On the other hand, water exposed to negative thoughts form imperfect, irregular patterns with dull colors. Using this premise the author used his research to create a new awareness of how one can positively impact the world as well as their personal

- I am one of those people who doesn't hang onto purchases that don't come up to snuff. When I was A+ book shopping I sat in stores and started reading several. I ended up buying and returning three other books because I'd find out that they were either poorly written, didn't contain enough info or were just plain off target giving info that was simply useless. Well I'm happy to say that Michael Meyers' "All-In-One A+ Certification Exam Guide" was almost the perfect book for the job. All in all it was well written, thorough, and personally I think that even if you didn't have computer experience you could pass the CompTIA exams with just this book if you studied thoroughly from cover to cover. I'm sure of it! And with Mr. Meyers' sense of humour it is fun as well. The CD contained a great set of practice exams including an awesome adaptive test engine that was dead-on in my opinion. I kept reading and re-reading the book until my scores on the practise test engine were to my satisfaction and then I took the real exams. My real exam marks matched very well with my marks with Meyers' test engine on the CD!!! Every text book has errors but these are completely covered on the web and since either Mr. Meyers himself or his staff are constantly reading the alt.certification.a-plus newsgroup most errors have been caught long ago and new printings don't have them. In case you are wondering, I do not know Michael Meyers personally I'm just very enthusiastic with his product! You simply COULD NOT GO WRONG if you bought Michael Meyers' "All-In-One A+ Certification Exam Guide"! (And with all my pavement pounding coming to this conclusion all YOU have to do is click on the 'Add to Cart' button. hehe) Good luck with your exams!!
