REVIEW OF OXFORD SPANISH DESK DICTIONARY SPANISH ENGLISH ENGLISH SPANISH

- For a long time, I'd heard about this book and seen it quoted by other authors. I finally realized that if so many great writers and speakers were familiar with it, I should be too. It is definitely a must read. It is in my personal top 10 list of all time. Frankl's revelations and wisdom from his horrifying experience will intrigue and amaze you. This book will be underlined, highlighted, and dog-eared. I promise. Gene Jennings, Author of Timely Words

- This book has been a college required reading in some schools. It tells of a man living in a concentration camp in implorable conditions. He observes how human nature drives some of the prisoners and the ways their lives are lived simply through the mind and the thoughts one gives it. You can also actually feel what he lived through and the process after the American's set the people free and the way life had changed for them. Also you can see the victory achieved by 'right thoughts'. Very powerful book. I'm glad to have it on my bookshelf next to "Night" by Elie Wiesel which was a winner of The Nobel Peace Prize. The horrors allow you to look at man's inhumanity to man and know you want to empower yourself to move toward love and forgiveness.
