REVIEW OF INTRODUCTION MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING 5TH EDITION SOLUTION MANUAL

- This is one of the lost treasures of the American Theater. Once one of the most produced plays by high schools and colleges it has lost stature and is only produced occasionally. The reasons for this are a mystery to me. As an actor's exercise it offers performers (particularly young ones) a chance to stretch and discover different cultural types. Based on the ballad "Barbara Allen" the play about a love affair and marriage between a Witchboy and a beautiful young woman is highly theatrical and filled with a mystical and earthy quality. Appalachian characters and traditional mountain songs add to the color and whimsical nature of the story.

- A great book! Bhikkhu Bodhi has taken his vast lifetime of experience of translating the Theravada Buddhist texts and compiled the most salient sections straight from the most original Pali sources. I've spent a lot of time with the Pali texts and if I had this selection years ago it would have saved me a lot of work. It's such a good reference. The oldest and most original Buddhist texts are in Pali. These are older than Zen, and older the Tibetan texts. Both Zen and Tibetan texts are outstanding, but the texts in Pali are the oldest and hence the source of the others. If this doesn't become the Bible for Buddhists I don't know what will.
