REVIEW OF PDF THE MYSTIC EYE

- Okay, i understand where many people are coming from in there thinking that book 7 was a bit repetitive and getting no closer to any answers. i also wholeheartedly agree with those out there who believe that jordan's style of writing is magnificent. it truly takes a master to be able to entrall so many readers for so long. i know i was hooked from day 1. many people out there complain of so many questions but no answers. i too have so many questions that i would love answered, but that is a part of the suspense and joy of reading. many things were answered(lan and nynaeve got hooked up). just be patient and enjoy the story. i also read Pod, and i'm sorry to say that i was a bit dissapointed in it. it seems that jordan completely forgot about mat in this book, and even though perrin was in a goodly portion, he didn't seem to get very far. i think what got me so interested in this series was how jordan focused on the differing aspects of the main characters. and while reading Pod you lose mat and the others don't get far. overall i think jordan is doing a superb job on what must be a horribly difficult series to write, what with the many intricacies. he goes into my books along with the other great authors i've read(tad williams, david eddings, david drake, raymon e. feist, terry goodkind, weis and hickman).

- This book in his series seem to drag on and on. It never felt like you were going anywhere. I kept on saying to myself as I read the book I hope it gets better.
