REVIEW OF 0873649273 UUS27

- WOW! I'm still trying to catch my breath. Casting The First Stone is a must read for every human being interested in taking some time out of their day in, day out world, to sit back and let Kimberla Lawson Roby steal their mind and body and take them into the lives of Tanya and Curtis Black. This story is not only about greed and betrayal but about how often, too many of us lose sight of just how precious life is and what's most important to us. Often when we do come to terms and realize that faith and commitment are valuable, many times it's too late. Everyone who reads this latest selection, will know or have heard of many if not all of the characters in this page turner. Kimberla Lawson Roby is such a wonderful story tell and I commend her on her choice of subject matter for her latest best seller and look forward to her next work of fiction. For those of you who are not familiar with this great author, you are indeed missing out on some of the most heart felt works of fiction to hit our 21st century. Bookclubs..... you will lose sleep over trying to finish this one!

- If you have read all of Terry Pratchett's Disc World series, particularly those books that deal with Granny Weatherwax and her sometimes sidekick Nanny Ogg, you will not find anything new here. This is due to publishers coming up with new ways to market old material. This is not wrong if they would 'fess up when they do this. However, if you like Nanny Ogg, then you might enjoy this collection of her sayings and recipes which are very humorous. One suggested use for this book is to keep it in the kitchen next to the real cookbooks and the next time you have a guest bothering you while you are trying to cook you can pretend to be using this cookbook. Note down some arcane ingredient and then ask them to get it from the grocery store on the other side of town. By the time they have given up, you can have the real dinner ready.
