REVIEW OF CHAPTER 8 GUIDED READING AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

- I loved the twist endings, some were funny, some insightful, others a little boring, but the overall effect was good. Great writing style, and interesting enough plots for short stories and the irony of life.

- Reich's second novel was a page-turner--a two-night read! There is no need to keep comparing her to Cornwell, she can stand on her own. Each deserve praise. Without them, what would we insomniacs do while waiting for sleep to overcome us? (Although both novels are "thrilling" enough to keep any early-to-bedder up past his/her bedtime.) I just wish she had more than the two novels. I'll be anxiously awaiting others!
