REVIEW OF PRENTICE HALL LITERATURE GOLD EDITION ANSWERS

- Martinez adds detail and insight into the stories of families featured on this PBS series. The video available from PBS and his book provide an excellent combination for educators, community leaders, and the general public to better appreciate the strengths and resolve immigrants bring to this country as well as the barriers, obstacles, and prejudices they face from those whose families came to the nation in earlier times.

- Although I know Peter the Great and visited his status when I was studying in Russia, I really do not know much about him. Abbott's book indeed gave me comprehensive knowledge on Peter the Great. Also I am very much impressed by Abbott's references. In this context, this is a serious historical book. I think that the reading of Abbott's books is a good way to learn history for busy people.
