REVIEW OF ASSESSMENT IN SPECIAL AND INCLUSIVE EDUCATION

- This warning appears on the first page of "Helter Skelter" and I never realized how true the statement would become. This is a TRUE story, and the events, characters, and descriptions are so frighteningly real you wish it were a work of fiction. A superb account of the criminal justice system, of cults, of the sway that one man can have over an entire group of people, and of the darkest sides of humanity. "Helter Skelter" is an excellent read and an enthralling story.

- I loved this book! It contains very helpful, real methods for becoming a better public speaker. The key, of course, will be in the readers practice and implementation, although the information is sure to help. Terry M. Drake, LSW, NBCCHA author of Live Happily, Ever After... Now!
