REVIEW OF CONSIDER PHLEBAS A CULTURE NOVEL

- This is a beautiful poetry collection - especially for the bird lover! This was given as a gift and very well recieved! The "Everyman's Library" has a great range of pocket books for everyone! Glad I found this one!

- I was surprised by this one. Persuasion was the only work of Jane Austen's that I had not read in high school. I don't know why it took me until 32 years of age to decide to read it, but I finally did, and loved it so much! It is immediately familiar in the sense that you can sense it as a work of Austen's, but has some slight differences. Anne is less spunky & for some a less immediate heroine. There is certainly less dialogue between characters as compared to Austen's other works. I feel that these things represent maturity & sophistication in her writing that add much depth. I can now say that this is my favorite. I was instantly moved to tears at the crucial point of the story I was so touched and affected by Anne's journey of persuasion....I hope you are too.
