REVIEW OF THE SKILLED FACILITATOR A COMPREHENSIV E RESOURCE FOR CONSULTANTS FACILITATORS COACHES AND TRAINERS

- Yes, I loved it. Nobody can depict characters of people the way Steinbeck can. He also has the power to take you to where the story is set and makes you one of his characters. You feel with them...you live with them, you hate and love people around you...

- I was fascinated by the name of this book before I started reading it. The story is simple but meaningful. I feel sympathetic and sorry for Lennie, the impeccable "giant". The ending of the book is unexpected but sure. I say "unexpected" because George killed his companion who fully trusted and counted on him. The reason I say "sure" is that Lennie would not be accepted by the society. This is a bit cruel to Lennie, but the world is like this. The setting of the ending is the same as the beginning. I feel serene when I read the ending. Besides the fascinating story, I was also attracted by the language of the book during my reading. This book is a combination of nature and humanity. The book is thin, but what I have learnt from the book is much more than what the book seems like.
