REVIEW OF 260 DRUM MACHINE PATTERNS

- Really Bad. Embarrassingly bad. In fact, this book is so bad that I don't want to dignify it further by saying any more than that. On the other hand, if clarifying and delving deeper into Neil Peart's prosaic and allegorical lyrics is of interest to you, then I strongly recommend "Mystic Rhythms: The Philosophical Vision of Rush" by Carol Selby Price and Robert M. Price (5 stars).
- This bible is compact enough to comfortably fit in the back pocket of my blue jeans. The book looks a bit thick but once in the pocket, you'll find that it carries well and is one of the best translations available today.
