REVIEW OF KARA KING PDF

- This is obviously a classic in every respect! I'm very pleased to have finally gotten the chance to read the original. Each magical little retelling has been pretty brilliant for me, and it's all because of this wonderful little book!! trust that you probably already know the story (and if not, that you can see the premise in another review), so I'll just focus on my experience on the read through. And what a delightful read it was! I laughed a lot through the opening (so clever and funny), I truly shuddered as the ghost of Jacob Marley was walking slowly up the stairs and dragging the chains behind him (really scary!), and I beamed my way through the last act-so thrilled for the outcome (that, by the way, we all already knew was coming...but the way it's written here makes it an even more joyous chapter than I expected). All in all, it's a grand Christmas book and timeless piece of literature that I would recommend to anyone. Just as a side note about the Bantam Classic edition also-this is a wonderful, small book with an enchanting cover (as you can see from the Amazon picture). The binding held up wonderfully for me through my first read (it still looks brand new). As a bonus, this version also contains a small biographical sketch on Dickens and a story about him reading this book aloud at a public reading. I haven't checked to see if the other editions also contain this material, but I definitely found it to be an asset to this one. You can't beat the price, either.

- A true Christmas classic by Charles Dickens that can be read anytime of the year. True it's best during the holiday season, but I have read it during other times of the year.
