REVIEW OF NARCISSUS AND GOLDMUND

- If I try to think in components as to what makes the princess bride such an unforgettable book, I would fail miserably.. the concept, the style, the plot, the character...I really dont know. It is a book that simply put, comes together beautifully. What makes the book amazing is the fact that you realise that it is so unreal only when you try to describe to someone who hasn't read it,(and fail miserably in the attempt). A review on the book therefore seems presumptuous, but a reaction to the Princess bride is simply.... well, actually, it's not simple at all.... and that is what will keep it on my bedside for a long long time.

- I loved this book. Amazingly funny and just an absolute great read. I haven't loved a book this much since a very long time. I picked it up one day at the library, imagining that it wouldn't be half as funny as the movie. Let me say that I was hooked after the first page and absolutely nothing could deter me from finishing this book! It's one of the sweetest book I've ever read. This is the way a book should make you feel.The only "bad part" to the book is that it had an ending!!! I'm quite upset about this.
