REVIEW OF FIA MANAGING COSTS AND FINANCES MA2 MA2 STUDY TEXT BY BPP

• I was fifteen years old at the time. I just learned chess the year before. This book does a very good job of explaining the craziness, the excitement, and the drama of the match. The book covers the major and minor characters well. The book uses the match as a microcosm to illumine the political environment at the time. The writing is crisp and thoughtful. The explanation of the individual games was kept to a minimum. I enjoyed the authors' other works, so I had high expectations and the book met them. I strongly recommend the book.

• This book was written around 1900, it seems, for those upper class ladies and gentlemen who delight in tea yet are ignorant of its artistic quality to life past and present. I expected at least one receipe of Japanese tea unknown to the west but found not one blend but certainly a receipe for greater bliss, rapture with each cup. I found the missing ingredient in my tea - perspective. This little book takes you through the history, the philosophy, the poetry, and the religion of tea. The chapters are as follows:-The Cup of Humanity-The Schools of Tea-Taoism and Zennism-The Tearoom-Art Appreciation-Flowers-Tea Masters This book reads like poetry. There is a chapter called "Flowers" which gives you the perspective of a flower in the grasp of man. It challenges you to gain feeling, to become alive by admiring life. "Tell me, gentle flowers, teardrops of the stars, standing in the garden, nodding your heads to the bees as they sing of the dews and the sunbeams, are you aware of the fearful doom that awaits you? Dream on, sway and frolic while you may in the gentle breezes of summer. Tomorrow a ruthless hand will close around your throats. You will be wrenched, torn asunder limb by limb, and borne away from your quiet homes. The wretch, she may be passing fair. She may say how lovely you are while her fingers are still moist with your blood. Tell me, will this be kindness? It may be your fate to be imprisoned in the hair of one whom you know to be heartless or to be thrust into the buttonhole of one who would not dare to look you in the face were you a man. Like all the Shambhala classics, this book is spiritual. I hope you can read it and be forever will taste with my spirit changed. Next time I not my tongue.
