REVIEW OF A PLACE ON THE CORNER SECOND EDITION

- I have read every one on Ms. Cornwell's books and I have to say that she has always kept me enthralled. Not this time! Other than the characters being the same I would have to say that this novel was written by someone else. It is possible that she needs to find another cast of characters.
- Although this was a lot better than her last three books in places it was very over-the-top and in-your-face. A bit of subtlety in some areas would be nice!! It also reads a lot like a re-hash of her earlier books. More details about the killer would have been interesting. Think I'll stick to Dick Francis, Lillian Jackson Braun and Mercedes Lackey from now on!!!
