REVIEW OF SEBELUM MANDI ABG SMP CANTIK SELFIE GAMBARNAKAL NET

- The Giver is a very well written book! I loved reading it. It is a good book for older kids and adults. I give the Giver two enthusiastic thumbs up! I have not read the sequel Gathering Blue but I am sure it will be a good book!

- Jonas community is different from our common society. They stress the conformity and sameness. They will receive the assignment at 12 age, and they should follow the assignment which was arranged each other. They don't know common things like color, snow, pain, war and so on, because the community is very special. Jonas would be able to receive the Receiver from the ceremony at 12 age, and he trained by the Giver. At the end of the story, Jonas leaves to the community with his brother who has same color eyes with Jonas. I hate the rule in the story because it interferes their freedom and choice for the future. In addition, they don't care death; moreover, they think the death is the real release. So, I am opposite to the side of the story. However, it might be right the community is perfect society. There are not any difference between people like poverty and rich, idiot and genius. If they don't know another society, they will live very perfectly. I impress the part of training about Christmas. Jonas considered the family and love at there. It is one of the emotions, but in the community, their family is not real, and it is also already decided by community. They have a birth mother separately. The book is very differently other fiction, and I think about the common our society again, and I can remind the material who settled in the present because of the story.
