REVIEW OF BONES OF THE HILLS CONQUEROR 3 CONN IGGULDEN

- Before all the infrastructure was there for tourists, true pioneers like Wolhuter explored and enjoyed the region dangerously. This book which I once owned and read a few times around the age of 10-16 has till today, 40-years later, marked places and incidences that I will never forget. This book is part of my life and love of Africa!

- I got bogged-down fairly early in this book and almost decided to stop reading it. Fortunately for me, it soon re-kindled my interest (no pun intended), and only got better as it progressed. This was my first foray into Dickens, and if his other works are as entertaining as this one is, I anticipate a world of wonderful reading ahead. Be forewarned that some of this book's reviews give away too much of its plot (I made the mistake of reading them first). Do yourself a favor: Just trust that Dickens deserves his legend and dive-in. I can't imagine that this famous classic will disappoint you.
