- This book is masterfully written. Chesterton tackles a difficult and complex issue but writes in a way anyone can understand his viewpoints. Whether you agree or disagree with his thrust; this book should be on anyone's list who is looking to view life in a more full way.

- We adopted twins from Vietnam and this was a great book for 3-4 year old sibling that waited a year for them to come home. I just substituted words that applied to our circumstances. Hard to find a book like this for siblings of adoptive babies.
