REVIEW OF IB MATH SL PAST PAPERS DOWNLOAD

- it's about an indian girl named Ruhama. Her dad kills a man by an accident and they are running away from the whole incident. Indian woman named Sedaya is included amongst them and so is their close friend Askwani. They ended up in a ship and they travelled with strangers. During this voyage Sedaya and Warne's eyes are met and Ruhama disapproves of it. Later on they have a baby together and Sedaya dies of a fever. Warne also dies, but this time because of a stab with the knife from someone obviously related to the man that Warne killed. Askwani and Ruhama has to raise the baby and they also go out and look for the right territory.

- Jane Jeffry and her neighbor Shelley are offered the opportunity to be the interior decorators for a large old home which their acquaintance Bitsy is redoing. Their children are growing older and more independent so these moms have more time to do some things they want to do. The problem is that they are not sure that this project is such a good idea. When they go to see the house, they are discouraged by the poor condition that it's in. Also some strange things are happening on the job site which convince them that someone is sabotaging Bitsy's efforts. Added to this, they are put off by the bossy and incompetent manner of the contractor, Sandy. When a murder occurs, things become even more grim. Jane and Shelley turn from decorators to investigators and finally, quite by accident, Jane solves the murder. This is not Jill Churchill's best effort, but Jane Jeffry fans will probably want to read it. The solution is presented very abruptly at the end, without much leading up to it. Also there is not quite as much humor in this book as in some of the previous ones in the series.
