REVIEW OF BC ABAP PROGRAMMING

- I just finished reading this wonderful book to my six-year-old son, who recently became obsessed with Greek mythology after listening to the audiotapes of the D'Aulaires' Greek Mythology. I picked this version because the illustrations are absolutely gorgeous, but I soon became equally appreciative of the writing. I needed to do a little bit of explaining to my son, but not too much. The story carried him along, and the retelling was clear enough--poetic without going overboard, with well-structured sentences that expressive oral reading could handle. I actually read the last third of the book while my son was in the emergency room, getting stitches! He didn't even realize that the doctor had begun stitching his head because he was so busy telling him about Odysseus! I highly recommend this book as a read aloud for a child with a good attention span (able to listen to chapter books) who likes adventure stories. My son spent several years obsessed (and I do mean obsessed) with Star Wars, and now he's moved on to Harry Potter--but Greek mythology and particularly this tale have caught his fancy in the same way.

- I love getting Hillerman books for my birthday! How I enjoyed this book! I told my wife that I hated to keep turning the pages as fast as I was turning them...because the book would soon be consumed. Tony Hillerman provides exactly the sort of reading experience that I relish: believable, sympathetic characters; an outdoor setting where I would like to find myself; and a plot that keeps me guessing. I just wish the gentleman from New Mexico could turn out more than one a year.
