- The Legend Of Sleepy Hollow is fun to read this time of year (reviewed 10/2). Definitely a classic!
- Washington Irving's timeless tale of the timid school teacher Ichabod Crane and his fateful encounter with a backwoods ghost (The Headless Horseman!) is so indelibly imprinted on the psyches of the American citizenry that one can't help believe this is an eyewitness account by Mr. Irving himself! Spooky, and full of atmosphere and as much a part of the American experience as Apple Pie, The Legend Of Sleepy Hollow is a true American classic that should be required reading in early highschool. So if you ever walk the backroads at night and you hear something unknown approaching, just take a guess as to what it is. It might just be the Headless Horseman!
