REVIEW OF BIOLOGY POWER NOTES ANSWER KEY YOURENORE

- Four Letters of Love was one of the best books I have ever read. It is a magical evocation of the West of Ireland and helped to restore my faith in humanity generally. Since first reading the book, I have passed it on to several people whom have all loved it.

- Like many, I had heard of this book, but had never read it, accepting the commonly held (though undeserved) opinion that it was racist. After reading it myself, though, I am amazed at the power and passion Beecher-Stowe was able to imbue her characters with. She loves each one of them, from saintly old Uncle Tom, to the sordid and disgusting Legree. And rather than a shuffling

"Yassa Massa" stereotypical slave, Tom strength is in always doing the right is one of the most pure-hearted, thing. This one is a masterpiece and a righteous characters ever written. His must-read!
