REVIEW OF THE RAGE AND THE PRIDE

- This book is written in a 1st person experience, just as the title suggests, with detail about New York getto life and prejudice. It reads fast and easy, and the best part is the details of the nitty gritty, at the same time summing up the larger story in much simpler generalizations (without giving away details).
- This book takes a good look at the serious and horrifying aspects of alcoholism, a must read for people with an alcohol problem or friends and family of an alcoholic. It shows just how far out of control alcohol can send a person.
