REVIEW OF

GUIDE OF KSHITIJ FOR CLASS 1

- The book does not live up to Traditional Home's reputation of quality work. Frankly, I can find better photos and design insite from magazines than what I found in this book. It's easy to understand why there are so many people wanting to sell the copies they have. It is honestly a disppointment if you are used to truly inspiring design publications. If you decide to buy this book, do yourself a favor and purchase a used copy. Even at Amazon's reduced price it's still over priced for what you get.

- The book was extremely good with its careful detail to scientific facts. I think the story got off to a very slow start and it took the author quite a while of pages to explain what she wanted from the readers in the beginning but after that the story ran smooth like water and I just couldnt put it down. I would really recommend this book but beware for the light hearted the description of deaths etc is not to nice
