REVIEW OF BIBLE QUIZ ACTS ALL CHAPTERS

- Kathy Bosworth has authored a daughter's love story in her book Your Mother Has Suffered a Slight Stroke. Bosworth's mother had a stroke and her physical as well as mental conditions worsened dramatically. Bosworth shares her personal story of how she stayed by her mother's side even though her mother became verbally abusive at times due to the stroke. Many 40 something folks opt not to hang around, but Bosworth saw her mother through the pain and suffering and endured whatever her mother dished out under the effects of her condition. Bosworth tells a tale of how she got through a very difficult period in her life with courage, dignity and love. Her example, beautiful portrayed in this accounting will cause the reader to laugh out loud as well as tear up at times. Bosworth has crafted a beautiful story. I recommend it.

- This one was painful to read. All of the dialogue is underlined (yes, I know it's supposed to be hundreds of fictional letters, but unfortunately, like real letters, the content tends to drift), and I found that distracting. I didn't care enough about Ivy, the heroine, to spend hours reading her letters. This book should have been titled: "Letters From Hee-Haw"
