REVIEW OF ECONOMETRIA TEMA 5 ERRORES DE OCW UC3M

- I really liked the very complete historical content of this novel, based on historical content alone I would have given it a strong 4 stars. However, there was just too much superfluous romantic content for my taste. At the risk of being label a sexist, for that very reason I rarely buy a book written by a woman and probably wouldn't have bought this one if I realized the author was a woman. In addition to the romantic content there was another technique that irritated me, but it was necessary to make the romantic angle work. Namely, the book contained way too many coincidentally meetings of people. People seemed to be tripping over people they knew everywhere they went. I'm of mixed minds about whether or not I'll buy the sequels to this book. I assume the author will continue the romantic mode, this for me is be a big factor. Long story short, if you like history AND romance novels you'll love this book; if you don't like romance novels, not so much.

- I am a huge cookbook fan and love to cook. Texas Ties is my favorite cookbook. I received it as a gift and was pleasantly surprised to see that the recipes are easy to make, unique, and delicious. My all-time favorite recipe is the caramel oatmeal bars. I make these often (especially during the holidays) and will give them to family and friends. Everyone seems to always love what I make from this cookbook! I would definitely recommend this book!!
