REVIEW OF DIARY OF A WIMPY KID 11 DOUBLE DOWN

- I'm not quite sure why this book got such terrible reviews...okay, so it's not extremely detailed, but what did you expect? It's for beginners, not advanced divers. I just got it as a refresher, plus it has some good information on dive sites. I recommend!

- This book should be considered a required part of living. I was 11 when i first got into Sherlock Holmes, having found an old book in the attic, an original hardcover containing 4 stories and beautiful illustrations. I then pestered my mum for the omnibus of Sherlock Holmes which I read in 2 months (I was 11 after all) I didn't understand a lot of the words so i had my trusty pocket dictionary by my side. I couldn't ask my mum, she's a hairdresser. Even though i was on a little Spanish-speaking island called Tenerife, whenever I read the exciting tales of Holmes and his faithful friend Watson I was transported back to Victorian England and on the chase!Now I'm 18, having visited the Sherlock Holmes museum in London and read sir Arthur Conan Doyles' other works, including theatre plays and parodies I can consider myself a complete Connoisseur.If the only Holmes you know has been the televised version you don't know what you're missing. Get this book now!!!But I warn you, its addictive reading so you might get a few shoes thrown at you to snap you out of it.
