REVIEW OF GULLIVERS TRAVELS LEVEL 4 RYSIEK DE

- I picked this book up for $1.00 at the local library bookstore. It was a great, quick read. I'd like to give it to every manager at the courthouse that I work in, but I don't think that would go over well. It's obviously very basic, and doesn't provide too much instructional information, but it is still entertaining.
- Do you think it's impossible to commune with God other than in quiet times of prayer and Bible-study? Do you not know that you can truly feel His presence in prayer, is it speaking up into the face of one whom you embrace? No book can ever substitute the Bible for spiritual truth; but Brother Lawrence brings light to reality in speaking of the practice of the presence of God. This book reveals the reality of walking with God on an intimate level regardless of whether you're waiting for the next cup of coffee at work or simply secluded in your prayer closet. You can practice His presence moment by moment, in silent conversation, in prayer or in submissive listening ("Speak, Lord, thy servant listeneth"). Brother Lawrence's letters and maxims come to us on an earthly and touchable level, despite the fact that they were written in 17th century France between what that time regarded as learned people. I would greatly encourage people yearning for closeness to God to consider purchasing this book. Though it cannot replace Scripture, it shines yet more light on the application of a constant, intimate relationship with God/Christ.
